Winnipeg's 4th round choice, 53rd overall, in 1974 WHA Amateur Draft.

Ron Ashton signed with the Jets in the summer of 1974 after being selected in the fourth round of the WHA Amateur Draft. A tough customer during his time in junior hockey, Ashton only scored one goal in his brief tenure with the Jets, but he made it count. His goal was the game-winner as the Jets defeated the Mariners in San Diego by a score of 6-4 on 28 December 1974. He also scored the Jets' first goal against an NHL opponent during the Jets' 3-1 loss to the Atlanta Flames in the 1974 exhibition season.
